Senator Marvel and Senator Warner want to do. The only thing is I am questioning whether we can do it and that's the only thing. I will vote for it but I hope, before we get too far out on the limb, that somebody finds out whether we can really do it because I am going to repeat again, this was brought up in the Constitutional Revision Commission. I don't know whether Senator Hasebroock remembers it or not, but at that time, the thinking was when we went to annual sessions we would have to have a budget annually and we couldn't go ahead of the one session. We couldn't go to a bi-annual budget on an annual situation. That is just strictly from memory. I don't remember just exactly who voted for and against and all that sort of thing. It has been too long ago. Maybe Senator Hasebroock can help me out here but, anyhow, I will go along with it but I hope before it gets to Final Reading somebody finds out if we can actually do it.

PRESIDENT: Senator Bereuter.

SENATOR BEREUTER: Mr. President, colleagues, I, respectfully, say that I can't believe what is happening here. We are talking about a very fundamental change in the budgeting process without the opportunity for the public to have any comment upon it. This is a heck of a time to put something like this in, I would say. It would be very nice to go back to a simplistic sort of situation we had with biennial budgets and biennial sessions and it is possible but it is certainly not desirable, I would suggest, and I would like to have a few other people who seriously look at the problem have a chance to view their... to hear their views as well in a public hearing in something like this. The review that you have on the second year will turn out being a full-fledged budget session anyway. Government changes so swiftly today, especially with the inter-governmental finance situation we have today with great amounts of money coming down from the federal government to us, new programs being initiated constantly, that we simply can't afford to take a look at, in a comprehensive fashion, at our agencies budgets only once every two years. I hope that we can think seriously about this now and not take some rash action. The public deserves to have their expression on this issue again.

PRESIDENT: Senator Hasebroock.

SENATOR HASEBROOCK: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I served with Senator Syas on the Constitution Revision Commission and, as Senator Syas stated, that we in that Commission decided that we had to go to annual sessions and that meant annual budgets. I am not sure, I also have an element of doubt as to whether we can do it the way Senator Warner would indicate he would like to do it. It may be possible but I would want to be sure that we give it a proper amount of study and thought before we went completely from this particular area. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Kelly.

SENATOR KELLY: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I would like to ask a couple of questions of Senator Marvel,
